Mongo Ball Rules

- Pitch to your own team
- Only three pitches = pitches must bounce
- Pitcher cannot be hit or interfere with play/called out
- After ball is put in play you must stand the bat upright directly on home plate
- The ball must go past your own pitcher
- Travel the bases any way except traditional, first, second, third, home
- Runners may change direction and go to another base=the only baseline is the outfield grass
- One player only can occupy a base/may visit each base only once
- Inning ends after three outs OR five runs

    Outs can be recorded in the following ways:
    - catch a ball
    - tag a runner out, dropped tags continue, no knockouts
    - The only forced out is when a player does not tag up after a catch
    - You may not throw the ball at a runner

    NO LEAD OFFS, STEALS, SLIDING OR BUNTING

    Throwing the ball to the pitcher can stop play

You must stay seated in the dug out in batting order (except for team captain/manager)

You may not change your batting order= you must begin where you left off in the order next inning.
